Anguished Congressmen who went home for the Christmas Holidays found their constituents madder than wet hogs and some ruefully acknowledged on their return to Washington that this huge jump in Social Security (CONT. Carter Proposal for Funding Agricultural Research, Education Short of Needs To Maintain, Increase Production of Food

Washington - Texas A&M University President Jarvis E. Miller has laid out at President Carter's proposed fiscal year 1979 funding for agricultural research and education activities, finding it woefully lacking. Representing the National Association of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges, Dr. Miller spoke in opposition to the President's budget request during testimony before the House Agriculture Committee's Subcommittee on Department Investigation, Oversight and Research. "Those of us in the academic community who are concerned with research and education activities conducted or sponsored by the U.S. Department of Agriculture were shocked and disappointed by the President's budget request for FY 1979," noted Dr. Miller. He said the proposed budget "clearly disregards the impact of the Congress" as reflected in PL 95-118, the public law which established the Food and Agriculture Act of 1977.

"It is fundamentally contrary to the extensive planning jointly conducted by the academic community and the federal government on needs for agricultural research and education," the Texas A&M president pointed out, "and it abrogates a major federal responsibility to maintain the obviously productive long-standing partnership with the states in agricultural research and extension." The proposal fails to take into account the recommendations of the world food and nutrition study conducted by the National Academy of Sciences at the direction of the President, he said. Dr. Miller pointed out the budget calls for decreases totaling more than $15 million in various categories such as cooperative research and rural development, while providing only a modest overall increase of $57,000 to be split among 1890 land-grant institutions. "Inflationary increases in the cost of agricultural research are at least 10 (CONT. ON PAGE 20)

Denton — "Red Beldy" is now a registered trademark of the Rod Angus Association of America, a means of identifying and certifying on paper one of the most simple solutions to the cattle crossbreeding program, according to Mike Sweet, secretary of the association. "Crossbreeding a cattle is a very profitable business. However, the merit of crossbreeding are obvious to the commercial cow-calf operator, the end result of which is more pounds of calf to sell at weaning time. For the yearling and feedlot operator the same factors are involved and the same advantages are realized. The sale of heavy weaning vigor" which comes from crossing two unrelated breeds of cattle," Sweet said.

"The industry demonstrates the feedlot can be one that has a high growth rate and still with enough moderation to mature early and get a good carcass," says a spokesman that obviously reflects these growth traits demand and get a premium price. The "Red Baldy," Red Angus crossed with Hereford, is such a animal. A group of Red Baldy steers is easy to identify. They have a red head and white body, solid red to the eye line. They exhibit all the growth characteristics required by the industry and they are polled. Furthermore, the Red Baldy has red pigmentation around its eyes which retards eye problems and disease.

Competition between breeds trying to capture the commercial man's eye has caused many to claim to be the "breed for all seasons" or the "everything" breed for all conditions. "The breed for all conditions is completely impossible," he said.

To date, only one, the Red Angus, is so certain of its product that its breeders are so bold as to stamp an identifying characteristic on a commercial product. The Red Baldy is an incredible meat machine. It is advertising on the hoof that will command a premium in the market place and the Red Baldy identity is also certified.

There is really nothing spectacular about a cow cycling regularly, breeding normally, giving birth to a thrifty healthy calf, producing enough milk to raise and wean that calf at a profit and all the while is able to maintain her own condition and repeat the process again and again.

For the Red Angus cow that is not spectacular. She was designed to be "efficient" and she is. This is why she is known as the Big Red Workin' Mama.

AMERICAN RED BRANGUS ASSOCIATION NEWS

BY JOHN BOSNOWY

A big turnout is expected for the big Red Brangus weekend in East Texas this Saturday and Sunday, March 11 and 12. If the limo has slipped up on you without your making your reservations, call the Holiday Inn in Jacksonville, Texas today, 214/586-9841. It's still not too late! We've got a block of rooms set aside just for you.

The schedule of events is as follows:

Saturday, March 11 — 12:30 p.m. — Meet at Holiday Inn in Jacksonville for beginning of Field Day tour. Stops include Rocking H Ranch, Henderson, Double J Ranch, Lanaville, and Bar G Ranch, New Summerfield.

Saturday, March 11 — 5 p.m. — American Red Brangus Association Board of Directors meeting followed immediately by general membership meeting at the Holiday Inn in Jacksonville.

Saturday, March 11 — 7 p.m. — Dinner and dance hosted by Lee Gregory's Bar G Ranch at New Summerfield, Texas, eight miles east of Jacksonville on Highway 79.

If you haven't seen Lee's cattle before now, you won't want to miss this weekend. During the last five years, Lee Gregory's have accumulated some of the finest Red Brangus cattle in the entire country. This is Lee's first production sale and it will feature the breeding of PFR Oscar's Improver 100/3. The offering will include 35 one and two year old bulls, 15 cow-calf pairs, and 80 heifers, some born and some bred.

I know the Field Day and sale day activities are going to be exciting for all of us, but please don't forget the association meeting Saturday afternoon. It'll be one of the most important meetings we've ever had and we've scheduled it so that everyone will have plenty of time to get to Jacksonville by Saturday afternoon.

The major item on the agenda will be the presentation of the plans for our big new event for 1978, the American Red Brangus Association Heifer Futurity, to be held at the Palaface Ranch in conjunction with Mike Levi's sale and the association annual meeting at Spicewood. We've committed for a big advertising program centered around a Red Brangus feature in the November issue of the "Cattlemen" magazine, but the real key to the success of this inaugural event will be the participation and support of our individual association members.

As all of you know, the word is getting around about Red Brangus. A successful Heifer Futurity will provide us with that slight edge that we need to be a real peacemaker in the purebred business. We've got the opportunity to take a giant step forward — can we count on your support to help us take advantage of it?

See you in Jacksonville!

Lee Gregory First To Offer Mature Red Brangus; Sale Sunday

New Summerfield, Texas — Lee Gregory and his family, owners of the Bar G Ranch near here will offer a unique opportunity in the Red Brangus industry in their first production sale to be held Sunday, March 12 — the possibility to buy some mature Red Brangus cattle at auction.

Their sale of 110 of their finest Red Brangus selected from a herd of about 400 head will include 15 cows with calves at side and 85 breeding-age bulls in addition to 80 younger heifers and about 15 or 20 younger bulls. There will also be nine Red Brangus 20 to 24 month old bulls in the offering.

The selection features the breeding of PFR Oscar's Improver 100/3, one of the legends of the breed. Gregory bought 100/3 for $14,000 in Mike Levi's Paleface Ranch sale when the bull was 11 months old. About 18 months later, when the bull had proven Gregory's skillful eye at appraising youngsters, Levi bought a half-interest in 100/3, back from Gregory — for $30,000.

Several of the bulls and heifers in the sale will be progeny of PFR Oscar's Improver 100/3, and some of the heifers will be bred to him.

Gregory has had two main objectives in his Red Brangus selection and breeding program — to build a herd that is completely free of scurs or horns, and bulls with sheaths small enough not to cause problems in icy weather or pastures with troublesome vegetation.

Gregory's sale beginning at 1 p.m., Sunday, March 12, will climax a week-end of Red Brangus activities. On Saturday, March 11, a Field Day tour of Red Brangus operations in East Texas will begin at the Holiday Inn in Jacksonville at 12:30 p.m. and visit the Rocking H Ranch at Henderson, owned by Den Hollie, president of the American Red Brangus Association; the Double J Ranch at Lanaville, and Gregory's Bar G Ranch at New Summerfield.

At 5 p.m. that day the A.R.B.A. board of directors will meet at the Holiday Inn in Jacksonville followed immediately by a general membership meeting. Then at 7 p.m. Gregory's Bar G Ranch will host a dinner and dance open to anyone who is interested in Red Brangus or the cattle business in general.

Bert Reyon, San Antonio, will auctioneer the sale.

Gregory has renovated a block of rooms at the Holiday Inn in Jacksonville, sale headquarters, phone 214/686-9841, for persons attending the field day and sale.

Further information is available from Bar G Ranch, 214/726-5469, or Sylor Baine Management, Inc., Route 2, Box 85, Burton, Texas 77835, phone 718/289-4400, or Billy Pollard, 817/623-7443.

Carter Proposal

percent," he told the Congressional group. "This means we are facing an effective reduction of 20 percent in the stable-based monies that are needed to carry out crucial agricultural research in land-grant institutions."

While proposing cuts in various areas the President's budget includes an increase of $16 million — to $30 million — for competitive grants to address basic research problems of high national priority.

Dr. Miller said NASULGC supports the competitive grant concept and does not disagree with the proposed level of funding.

"The President's budget proposes, however, to essentially fund this program at the expense of the formula-based support of longer-term, broader research in the land-grant institutions," he observed. "With this we cannot agree."

The Texas A&M president conceded that "in this interim period of potential over-production in agriculture, it is perhaps tempting to lessen the emphasis on research and extension."

"In short range, however, at least part of the solution to the present problem in American agriculture must be overcome through improved methods of operation and marketing," he explained.

Stuph & Thangs

taxes and President Carter's proposed huge new taxes on oil and gas, were the straw that finally broke the camel's back.

At this writing there are a large number of Congressmen scurrying around trying to figure out another way to finance Social Security and lessen the increase in taxes on individual pay checks. At this time one of the better regarded schemes to turn this heat down is to give folks a smaller tax cut next year and apply the difference to Social Security funding.

This Tax Revolt had hardly gotten going good when, Lol and Deloid here come the Farmers with their threat to

"In the longer view," he added, "we must clearly delineate the difference between production and the capacity to produce. The need to enhance the latter is clearly unchallenged if we believe the projections of need for increased world food."

Dr. Miller concluded that it is this capacity to produce that will be effected by the reductions proposed by the President's budget.

Also submitting testimony before the committee was Dr. Neville P. Clarke, director of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station.

strike and their demonstrations and if the Congress thought the Tax Payers were mad, they soon figured out that the Farmers were even madder and as of this writing there are a number of bills in the works with various ideas as to how to help the Farmers out of their financial jam.

What made this development especially interesting was the fact that a number of Congressmen and Senators who had little or no interest in Agriculture have got the word and the Farmers have got their attention about as effectively as the Tax Payers did. Their cup of French runneth over, especially in the House, since all the House members are up for election this Fall and with the oilives on the War Path on the farms and ranches and in the working folks treaches, a lot of Congressmen can see they have a better chance of getting re-elected if they can get the Tax Payers to agree to a tax cut. The need to enhance the latter is clearly unchallenged if we believe the projections of need for increased world food.

Dr. Miller concluded that it is this capacity to produce that will be effected by the reductions proposed by the President's budget.

Kimbell MEDICATED FEEDS ARE MONEY MAKERS

It goes without saying that no program or type of feed can guarantee a profit on a particular set of livestock. However, it is possible to guarantee that with proper management a feeding program will make livestock more valuable — better money makers.

KIMBELL Medicated Feeds Are Designed to Improve Animal Health and Balance Nutrition

This type of program improves the appearance, gives livestock the "good doing" look — this convinces your buyers they are "worth more."

This type of program actually makes your livestock "do better" — cure of disease and parasites adds pounds — they are "worth more."
